THE KYGERVILLE MEETING .- In another column will be found the proceedings of a meeting held in Kygerville on Thursday last. They recommend a county convention, to be held in Gallipolis on the 24th inst., for the nomination of county officers, but the Whig Central Committee have already made a call for Primary Elections for the same purpose, and of course obviates the necessity for a convention. We presume the notice of the Central Committee had not reached Kygerville previous to meeting, as it was issued in the last rnal, the day on which the meeting as held, otherwise the call for a nomifrom this district.
